

Frequently Asked Questions

What is rent geared-to-income assistance?

Rent geared-to-income (RGI) assistance is also known as subsidized housing. RGI assistance is for eligible households who do not have enough income and/or assets to pay market rent.

RGI assistance means paying a rent amount based on your income.

Who can apply?

You can apply if:

- you are at least 16 years old
- all household members are legal residents of Canada or refugee claimants
- no household member owes money to any former social housing provider
- no household member is under a deportation, departure or exclusion order to leave Canada
- no household member has been convicted of an offence related to rent geared-to-income assistance
- no household member has been found by a court of law or the Landlord and Tenant Board to have misrepresented their income for the purpose of rent geared-to-income assistance

You must provide documentation clearly indicating your legal right to be in Canada for all household members. This may include, but is not limited to:

- a copy of your Canadian passport
- a copy of your Canadian birth certificate
- landed immigrant papers, permanent resident card or
- documents supporting your claim for refugee status

When it is close to the time when you will be offered housing you must be able to live independently, with or without support services. The applicant must arrange support services.

An individual is considered to be able to live independently if he or she is able to perform the normal essential activities of day-to-day living; or can do so with the aid of support services and demonstrates that those support services will be provided when they are required.

How do I know my application has been received?

We will write to you within seven days after your application is received to let you know if it complete or not complete.

What if my application is not complete?

If you have not completed all sections of the application form or if you have not included the required documents, we will send your application back to you without placing you on the waiting list.

I own my own home. Can I still apply?

You can apply, but if your residential property can be used all year, you must dispose of it within 180 days after receiving RGI assistance.

I do not have an income. Am I eligible for social housing?

Yes, but once you are housed; you may have to pursue income from one or more of the following sources:

- Ontario Works
- Support payments
- Employment Insurance
- other government assistance
- any pension or support payments required under a sponsorship agreement

What is Co-op Housing?

Co-operative housing looks like other rental housing such as a townhouse complex or apartment building but is different because the people living in the units control it.

Living in a co-op means you are a member of the corporation that owns and manages the housing complex. Co-op members are involved in running the housing complex, and also share the responsibility in the maintenance of the co-op, on a voluntary basis.

Each co-op has a membership committee that is responsible for the selection of new members. It may be necessary for you to attend an orientation session. You must also take part in the co-op's interview process in order to be considered for membership.

What is Non-profit Housing?

Non-profit housing is owned and managed by community based organizations. They have independent boards of directors. The Regional Municipality of York manages its own portfolio of non-profit housing units.

How long will it take for me to be offered a unit?

The amount of time before a unit comes available can vary depending on the locations you choose or the size of the unit. The Housing Access Unit cannot give you your placement on the waiting list because waiting lists fluctuate daily. However, you can speak to one of our Applicant Service Representatives who can discuss approximate waiting times.

Can I choose where I want to live?

Yes. When you apply for housing, you will be asked where you want to live. You can choose one or many locations. Your name will be added to the waiting list for each location where you are eligible.

It is important to remember that you only have three refusals in total and after that you will no longer be eligible. (Your file is cancelled.) Therefore, select only the areas where you would like to live.

You can request changes to your building selections at any time. Contact one of our Applicant Service Representatives who will make the changes with your original application date.

Do I get to pick how many bedrooms I want?

You can specify how many bedrooms you want. But you must keep in mind that the number of bedrooms is determined by the occupancy standards that apply to your household size.

The Regional Municipality of York will confirm the size of unit you are eligible for at the time of application or selection.

Seniors Accommodation

Applicants are eligible for seniors housing if at least one member of the household is 60 years old or older.

What should I do if information or my situation changes after I submit my application?

If there is a change in any of the information that you provide, you are required to notify our Housing Access Unit within 10 business days of the change. You will be notified if additional documents or information are required.

What happens while I am waiting for housing?

While you are waiting, you must keep your file up to date. We need written notification within 10 business days if any of the information you provided in your application has changed. For example:

- you change your address or phone number
- you want to live in locations other than those you chose on your application
- the number of people in your household changes
- the contact person on your application changes

We will send you a letter and "Update form" once a year. Your name may be removed from the waiting list if you do not return the form and we cannot contact you.

How many times can I turn down an offer?

A household can turn down an offer of a unit three times. After the third refusal, you will no longer be eligible for rent geared-to-income housing and will be removed from the waiting list. You may reapply, however your original application date will no longer be available.

How are people chosen for housing?

Households are considered for housing in order of their application date. The buildings you select are independently owned and managed, and are called "housing providers". As vacancies occur, each housing provider selects applicants from a waiting list provided by York Region. Special priority may be given to your application if you are living with someone who threatens your safety or the safety of other household members.

How will I be contacted for an offer?

Housing providers require a daytime telephone number so they can call you when a unit becomes available. If you cannot be reached during the day, it would be helpful if you gave us a telephone number of a contact person who can be reached during the day so they can pass on the message to you.

How much rent can I expect to pay?

Rent geared-to-income is based on 30% of your gross monthly income. Additional charges may apply depending on the building (e.g. parking).

If you are receiving assistance from Ontario Works or the Ontario Disability Support Program, your rent is based on a pre-determined rent scale.

What if I want a market rent unit?

Housing providers who have market units usually keep a separate waiting list for these units. If you are interested in obtaining a market unit, please contact the housing provider directly.

What if I need a special type of unit?

Some housing providers have wheelchair accessible/modified units (e.g. wider doorways, lower counters) or units where support services are provided.

A detailed list of modified units can be accessed from the Region's website at www.york.ca or at the Housing Access Unit office.

Special Priority Status (Household abuse/violence status)

Special priority status is reserved for applicants who have been abused by another person living in their household. Special priority assists applicants who need rent-geared-to-income housing to permanently separate from the abusing individual.

There are specific legislated criteria to be eligible for special priority status. If you are applying for this status, there are additional forms and documentation required in order to verify the abusive situation.

These forms can be accessed from the Region's web site at www.york.ca or the Housing Access Unit office.
