

Social Housing

There are over 7,000 affordable rental and subsidized rental housing units in York Region operated by non-profit, co-operative and municipal organizations.

Non-Profit Housing is owned and operated by community-based, non-profit organizations such as faith groups and service clubs.

Co-operative Housing is owned and operated by its residents. Generally, co-operatives expect residents to actively participate in the operation of their housing community by being a member of a committee or getting involved in other activities.

Housing York Inc., York Region's housing company, owns and operates over 1,900 affordable rental and subsidized rental housing units across York Region.

Social Housing in York Region

How Do I Apply for Social Housing?

All social housing providers in York Region use a common application form to apply for rent-geared-to-income assistance.

There are four ways to get an application form:

1. Have an application form mailed to you by calling 1-888-256-1112.
2. Pick up an application form from York Region's Community and Health Services Department at: 55 Eagle Street West, Newmarket
3. Contact any social housing provider within York Region.
4. Print one directly from our website, www.york.ca

The application form includes detailed instructions on how to complete it and where to send it.

Who is Eligible for Social Housing?

To be eligible for social housing:

- All household members must be permanent residents of Canada or have Refugee Claimant Status.
- At least one person in your household must be 16 years of age or older.
- You must be able to live independently, with or without support services.
- For seniors' accommodation, at least one applicant must be 60 years of age or older.
- No member of your household can owe back payments of social housing rent to any social housing landlord.

Is There a Waiting List for Social Housing?

Yes, there is a waiting list. Housing is available on a first-come-first-serve basis, based on the date your application is received. Waiting times can vary greatly depending on the social housing community you apply to and the size of the rental unit you require.

There is a Special Priority waiting list category for victims of domestic violence.
