Subject Changes to 2002 Household Service Level Standards

Authority Ontario Regulation 87/02 Amending O. Reg. 368/01 made under the Social Housing Reform Act, 2000

Background On February 20, 2002 Program Instruction No. 2002-02 was issued to housing providers indicating the 2002 Household Service Level Standards. A recent amendment to Ontario Regulation 368/01 by Ontario Regulation 87/02 has revised the Region of York's Service Level Standards. The Region's revised minimum Household Service Level Standards for the categories of Household Income Limit households and High Need households are referenced below.

Household Service Level Standards

Number of Households whose Income is no greater than the Household Income Limit	Number of High Need Households
4,083	980

Action Required No action is required at this time. At this time Housing Providers only need to be aware of these revised service level standards. The Region expects to receive further provincial regulations on the future reporting requirements.
