Subject Statistical Reporting 2005

Authority s. 113 (6) of the Social Housing Reform Act, 2000

Summary All housing providers are required to complete household statistical information as of December 31, 2005.

Background Under the Social Housing Reform Act 2000 (the Act), the Regional Municipality of York (the Region) is required to report annually by social housing programs, certain statistical information to the Province.

Procedure Housing providers need to collect and report on statistical data annually. Each housing program has different reporting requirements and the Region has developed instructions and schedules for each program type. Separate letters with the relevant statistical spreadsheet will be issued for each provider.

Action Required Housing providers must complete and submit the statistical information form to their program co-ordinator by January 20, 2006.

Please contact your Program Co-ordinator if you have any questions.
