

Commissioners for Taking Affidavits Act

This Act clearly articulates who can function as a Commissioner. It does include all lawyers as well as a number of City Officials.

- Members of the Assembly
- Provincial judges and justices of the peace
- Barristers and solicitors entitled to practise law in Ontario
- Clerks, deputy clerks and treasurers of local municipalities
- Administrative heads and deputy administrative heads of departments responsible for building standards, welfare, assessment or planning and the Medical Officer of Health of every local municipality that has a population of at least 100,000
- The heads of municipal councils, reeves of towns, deputy reeves and members of city councils
